Elocution Competition: Celebrating Bhagwan Birsa Munda's Legacy

The Elocution Competition is successfully conducted by the NSS Unit of GEC Dahod, aligning with the college's focus on national service and cultural awareness. The event commenced at 11:30 AM on 12-11-2025 with the attendance of the President Gymkhana, the NSS Programme Officer, faculty members, and student participants.

The ceremony began with a brief address by the NSS Programme Officer, who welcomed the audience and highlighted the significance of celebrating the 150th birth anniversary of Bhagwan Birsa Munda, emphasizing his role as a tribal leader and freedom fighter whose life embodies selflessness and service. The rules and judging criteria were announced, focusing on Content Relevance, Clarity and Fluency, Oratorical Skills, and adherence to the Time Limit (typically 5-7 minutes). A large number of students from various disciplines participated with great enthusiasm. Participants presented powerful speeches, covering diverse aspects. A panel of judges, consisting of experienced faculty members from the Humanities and Applied Sciences departments, evaluated the participants. They commended the students for their rigorous research and impassioned delivery.

The President Gymkhana delivered the concluding remarks, congratulating the NSS Unit for organizing the meaningful event and praising all participants for their efforts in bringing to life the inspirational story of Birsa Munda.

The competition served as an excellent platform for students to voice their perspectives on a figure central to India's freedom struggle and tribal history.

The event concluded successfully at approximately 1:30 PM with the distribution of participation certificates and a vote of thanks, leaving the participants and audience with a renewed sense of national and social responsibility.
