5th Anniversary Celebration of Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyan

The calendar turning to November 18, 2025, marked not just another day, but the 5th anniversary of the Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyan (NMBA), an initiative that has become a touchstone for social responsibility across India. At the Government Engineering College (GEC), Dahod, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit transformed this milestone into a day of profound introspection, collective action, and renewed commitment, focusing on mobilizing the powerful demographic of youth against the scourge of substance abuse.

The core of the day's events was the central theme: "Yuva Shakti: Drug-Free India"—a recognition that the future trajectory of the nation rests heavily on the health and vitality of its student population. The celebration was deliberately designed as a dual-front campaign, acknowledging the need for both high-impact, in-person engagement and broad, accessible digital reach.

In essence, the 5th-year celebration at GEC Dahod was far more than an annual ritual; it was a strategically planned intervention. By blending the gravity of an expert lecture with the dynamism of youth-led activism, and by innovatively combining the traditional solidarity of a physical oath with the vast reach of a digital pledge, the NSS Unit ensured that the message of the Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyan was not merely heard, but internalized and acted upon. The day concluded with the firm understanding that while the fight against addiction is continuous, the dedicated spirit of the GEC Dahod community provides a formidable bulwark against it, laying a healthy foundation for the next five years of the Abhiyan.
